

Satelite Radio and XM Radio in particular provide a valuable service (weather and traffic reports) to those of us on the road. My wife and I are active RVers and find this more useful than local radio. We frequently don't where to tune to obtain the local weather and traffic.

Please don't limit their offerings. We all, the public, the FCC, and Congress should seek the most valuable use of our radio and TV services.